FOOD SUPPLIES AT CRITICAL LOWS AT CRC

With food cost increases and severe cuts in federal food allotments to agencies like CRC nationwide, food distribution centers are struggling. CRC's Client Center shelves are the barest they have been since our collective programs began serving the community. Local businesses and groups have stepped in to host food drives, but CRC still needs more help!

CRC Wins the Whole Foods Facebook Poll - THANK YOU FOR VOTING!

"Whole Foods Market Encinitas is very excited to support the Community Resource Center as the first 5% Day Recipient for our new store. We appreciate how valuable the services they provide are to the community. 5% days are a way that we can give back to our communities at a very grassroots level.

We are so happy for Community Resource Center to be the winner." —Marc Bird, Encinitas Store Team Leader
